For some time, at the front chair of Garrett Michael Barbershop stood it’s perfect ambassador. A man who's disarming greeting was an invitation to leave the world outside.

You didn’t have to know Matt well to see what he was made of. Steady, sincere, thoughtful. Sharp and skilled, yet humble. An exemplary gentleman who's presence was easily taken for granted then sorely missed when no longer here.

This gentleman left his life in NYC and made his way to Utah and a dream and a prayer. He left the corporate life in exchange for a pair of barber clippers and skies! He had many hidden talents, one being a DJ.

His journey has inspired so many. His family is in upstate NY and his barber family is here in Salt Lake City -- we have been forever bonded by this beautiful soul known as Matt Finegan.
